

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of outrageous media consolidation and bias control.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But we get little in support of substantive news and balance important for democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.